

V Evento Internacional do CIK - PROGRAMAÇÃO

Local: Auditório do CFH

Segunda-feira 04 de agosto

13:45-14:00 Abertura

14:00-15:15 Andrea Faggion (com Aguinaldo Pavão): “Kant in Favour and Against Human Rights”

15:15-16:30 Alessandro Pinzani (com Nuria Sanchez Madrid): “Some Difficulties with Kant's Appraisal of Citizenship”

16:30-17:00 pausa

17:00-18:15 Delamar V. Dutra: “Kant as a Precursor of Rawls”

18:15-19:30 Werner Euler: “Right, Justice and Individual Self-determination. Critical Comments on Axel Honneth's Kant-Interpretation”

19:30-19:45 pausa

19:45-21:00 Susan M. Shell: “Kant on Citizenship, (In-)dependence and Distributive Justice”

Terça-feira 05 de agosto

09:30-10:45 Alberto Pirni: “The Place of Sociality: Models of Intersubjectivity According to Kant”

10:45-12:00 Jean-Christophe Merle: “How to Formulate a Kantian Answer to Kantian Objections against Welfare Benefits?”

12:00-14:00 almoço

14:00-15:15 Julio Esteves: “The Primacy of the Good Will and the Possibility of Moral Luck”

15:15-16:30 Joel Klein: “A possibilidade do ensino público para uma virtude moral na filosofia kantiana”

16:30-17:00 pausa

17:00-18:15 Maria de Lourdes Borges: “Para todo o mal, a cura”

18:15-19:30 Cinara Nahra: “Kant: Suicide and Euthanasia”

19:30-19:45 pausa

19:45-21:00 Luigi Caranti: “How Cosmopolitanism Reduces Conflict: Narrow and Broad Readings of Kant's Third Ingredient for Peace”

Quarta-feira 06 de agosto

09:30-10:45 Milene C. Tonetto: “Kant and Principled Autonomy in Bioethics”

10:45-12:00 Alcino Bonella: “Universal Prescriptivism, Kantian Utilitarianism and Bioethics”

12:00-14:00 almoço

14:00-15:15 Darlei Dai Agnol: “Rawls' Kantian Principles and Eugenic Policies”

15:15-16:30 Marco Azevedo: “The Place of Patient's Autonomy in the Kingdom of Ends”

16:30-16:45 Encerramento